SUNNYVALE MAYORAL CANDIDATE FORUM

SNAIL, the Sunnyvale Mobile Home Alliance, and the League of Women Voters of Cupertino-Sunnyvale are hosting a Sunnyvale Mayoral Candidate forum on Thursday, Sep 26, 2024 from 7:00 to 8:30 PM at the Sunnyvale Community Services in their Community Room.

We hope you'll attend in person. It will also be on Zoom. More information will be provided as the date gets closer.

-Elaine Manley, Co-President League of Women Voters

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

The summer has arrived, and SNAIL residents have plenty to look forward to. Let's get the bad news out of the way first for all of us street fair goers:

"Due to mismanagement from the previous Director of the Chamber of Commerce and the failure to find a replacement, the Board of Directors has decided to cancel the Art and Wine Festival 2024" traditionally hosted on the first weekend of June.

The good news is that you will have two extra days to spruce and clear out debris or end of life items you may have kept for our annual Dumpster Day on June 8th.

You can also look for and gather your gently used unwanted treasures in your home and bring them to Tarik's place at 667 San Diego Ave for our annual two-day Yard Sale on June 8th and 9th.

Look for a traditional family recipe, think about a special dish you would like to share at our next community event, which will be the traditional annual National Night Out International Potluck on Tuesday, August 6th. Fire Trucks, motorcycles, ice cream truck and live music are all on the schedule.

As you may not be aware, besides the national and state elections this fall, residents of north Sunnyvale will be able to elect, for the first time, a North Sunnyvale School District representative. We will also have the chance to elect or reelect our City Mayor. SNAIL will be the co-host of a city-wide Mayoral Candidate forum on Thursday, Sep 26, 2024 from 7:00 to 8:30 PM, so gather your thoughts and think of questions to ask Mayoral candidates. You may forward your questions to our moderators at the League of Women's Voters using this email address: VoterService@lwvcs.org
 -Valérie Suarès

Pets of the Month

PEYTON

Having relocated from Brooklyn several years ago, Peyton has cultivated numerous canine and human companionships within the enclave of SNAIL. Her contributions to the SNAIL community include serving as a volunteer in pest management, vigilantly dissuading scores of rats and crows. Peyton derives pleasure from a good road trip, basking in seaside serenity, traversing rugged terrain, indulging in culinary delights, engaging in spirited tug of war contests, grappling with opponents, fostering new relationships, and relishing in belly rubs. Peyton's origin story has humble beginnings as a rescue from the east coast, but is known for her main character energy and high emotional IQ.

LOPEN

This happy boy is Lopen, and he lives on Carolina Ave. His mom, Chelsea, says he loves playing fetch, stealing food from his (human baby) sister and walking down the streets of our neighborhood and smelling all the smells.

HIGHLIGHTS OF LAST MONTH'S SNAIL ZOOM MEETING

DPS NRO Joseph Melo: Officer Melo gave an informative talk regarding the theft of catalytic converters (CC). The discussion included some tips of things we can do to make it harder for thieves to take them. We can park in the best spot we can, but people are still going to be able to get access to the CC, so for preventative measures, there are shops that you can take your car to where they will weld a plate or place chunks of rebar around your CC. It's not going to completely stop someone from taking your CC. The plate that is welded in place will stop a lot of it due to the fact that, even if they cut the CC on either side of your exhaust pipe, it won't be able to get removed.

Peggy Brewster: Village Centers. A few years ago, the City embarked on this project to identify Village Centers throughout the city. The purpose was to plan these centers so that it would be a walkable area where people would be able to live and work and get to restaurants and retail without having to get in the car. There are two village centers where two developers have submitted plans for those village centers and the plans are to tear down everything that is there and replace it with high density housing. Lucky's shopping center on Mathilda/Maude is one, Pho Lovers is another and the large center on Duane where Tia Juana and Speedy's Taco, etc. are located.

COLUMBIA NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER'S COMMUNITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE IS SEEKING NEW MEMBERS

The committee advises the center's administration on services and helps identify and address community needs and evaluate program efficacy and impacts to underserved families. The committee is accepting applications from middle or high school students who reside in north Sunnyvale; Sunnyvale parents or guardians with a focus on diversity; a Sunnyvale resident, who lives in north Sunnyvale, or in an apartment, mobile home or affordable housing, or is age 50 or older; staff from a school that serves Sunnyvale families; and a staff member or volunteer with a nonprofit that serves Sunnyvale youth and/or families or is located in Sunnyvale.

The committee is also seeking members from the business community or a faith-based organization who supports the center's mission, goal and objectives. For more information, contact Susan Van Dyne at: svandyne@sunnyvale.ca.gov or call 408-730-7350.
